The purpose of this event is raise funds to support the mission of MDF, which is, “to ensure the conservation of mule deer, black-tailed deer and their habitat.” Over the past few years, MDF has allocated and provided funding on a variety of projects in Wyoming. Recently, funding has been allocated to the nearby Lander Front Habitat Restoration Project and the Wyoming Range Mule Deer Habitat Assessment. A portion of this funding has been the result of the efforts of the Wind River Chapter. But conservation is an “ongoing” effort; so please come out and support your volunteer’s efforts.

A variety of unique merchandise will be available in our live auction, silent auction, raffles, and games. This year’s banquet package includes the
